3. Data Collection and Use

3.1. Access Data

When you visit our website, our web server automatically collects data about your access to the site. This access data includes the IP address of the requesting device, the date and time of the request, the name and URL of the requested file, the website from which the access occurred (referrer URL), the browser used, and, if applicable, the operating system of your device.

This data is processed for the purpose of ensuring a smooth connection setup and comfortable use of the website, as well as for evaluating system security and stability. The legal basis for this data processing is Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR.

3.2. Personal Data

Personal data is only collected if you provide it to us voluntarily, for example, when contacting us via email or using a contact form. The data you provide will be used for the purpose of processing your request and may include your name, email address, phone number, and any other information you provide.

The legal basis for this data processing is Art. 6(1)(b) GDPR, if it is related to the performance of a contract or pre-contractual measures, or Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR, if the processing is based on our legitimate interest in responding to your request.

4. Cookies

We use cookies on our website. Cookies are small text files stored on your device that help us enhance the user experience, analyze usage, and provide certain functionalities. Some cookies are essential for the website to function properly, while others help us improve our services.

You can configure your browser to reject cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent. However, if you disable cookies, some features of our website may not function properly.

5. Third-Party Services

5.1. Google Analytics

Our website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google LLC. Google Analytics uses cookies to help analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website is usually transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there.

We use Google Analytics to evaluate and improve the use of our website. The legal basis for this data processing is Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR. You can prevent the storage of cookies by adjusting your browser settings accordingly. Additionally, you can prevent the collection of data generated by the cookie related to your use of the website (including your IP address) and the processing of this data by Google by downloading and installing the browser plugin available at this link.

6. Data Security

We implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure, or access.

7. Your Rights

You have the following rights regarding your personal data:

- Right to Access: You have the right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning you is being processed and, if so, access to the personal data and relevant information.
- Right to Rectification: You have the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal data concerning you.
- Right to Erasure: You have the right to request the deletion of personal data concerning you, under certain conditions.
- Right to Restriction of Processing: You have the right to request the restriction of processing of your personal data, under certain conditions.
- Right to Data Portability: You have the right to receive the personal data concerning you in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.
- Right to Object: You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data under certain conditions.

- Right to Withdraw Consent: You have the right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data at any time.

To exercise these rights, please contact us at the contact details provided above.

8. Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this privacy policy from time to time. The latest version will always be available on our website. Please review this privacy policy periodically for any changes.
